

Child abuse and neglect continues to be a red flag in our community

Want to help but not sure how?

Reach out to one of these agencies to see how you can make a difference for children and families in our community.

Burrell Behavioral Health works to form meaningful connections and inspire hope in our community through individualized and accessible care, quality practices, and collaborative partnerships. www.burrellcenter.com

Child Advocacy Center puts the needs of the child first in an investigation for abuse. The goal of the CAC is to end the abuse suffered by every child victim who walks through our doors. www.childadvocacycenter.org

Community Partnership of the Ozarks works to facilitate and promote the building of resilient children, healthy families, and strong neighborhoods & communities through collaboration, programming and resource development. www.cpozarks.org

Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Southwest Missouri recruits, trains and supports community volunteers who advocate for the best interest of children in foster care. www.casaswmo.org

Early Childhood One Stop does referrals, support and training for families with children in 3rd grade or younger. www.ccozarks.org/theonestop

FosterAdopt Connect specializes in solving short term problems and providing long term solutions for children and families involved in the child welfare system. www.fosteradopt.org

Great Circle's Southwest Region delivers a broad spectrum of therapeutic services, from parenting education and therapeutic services to Community Based Services supporting families in need. www.greatcircle.org

Isabel's House provides temporary shelter and care for children ages birth to 12 whose families are facing any type of crisis. www.isabelshouse.org

Greene County Family Justice Center offers services to those experiencing domestic violence and co-occurring child abuse. Some of the free services include: crisis intervention, safety planning, and assistance with orders of protection and accessing community resources. www.greencountyfamilyjusticecenter.org